Description: Biography:

Kylar's Background</para><para>Home Community</para><para>Kylar's life on the frontier is spartan and dangerous, but it encourages self-sufficiency. Most</para><para>homesteads include only one or two families. Kylar hails from Heveyant southwest of the Ya'ari</para><para>forest.</para><para>Climate</para><para>Kylar welcomes the cold all year long, although where he comes from seasons are still</para><para>discernible. The length of day and night changes greatly from season to season.</para><para>Education</para><para>Kylar showed talent in singing, but his song lyrics were odd at best. Kylar has apprenticed</para><para>with a master bard from his mother's family for bardic instruction.</para><para>Events</para><para>Kylar took a two-way trip to the continent of Estile. Kylar the Annoying went as far north as he</para><para>could travel to see the world and gather materials for his songs. Kylar the Annoying displayed an</para>cpara>innate talent for bardic arcane spellcasting or an affinity for song magery. Others took notice,</para><para>specifically the Order of light, but soon Kylar was labelled a heretic.</para><para>Family</para><para>For some reason, Kylar's family's economic status was difficult to measure. Kylar the Annoying</para><para>lived a solitary life on the frontier farmer, living entirely off the land. One branch of Kylar's</para><para>family follows one leadership structure, and one or more others follow a different structure, the</para><para>Church. Kylar the Annoying's family maintains a low level of readiness including the use of few</para>epara>weapons and an occasional song of how to defend against raiders. Kylar's family often tries to</para>oreak agreements or recant promises. This has led to Kylar's lyrical lies. Whether Kylar the</para><para>Annoying's family is unfairly painted as liars or has a better reputation than they deserve, it's</para><para>clear the community has the wrong idea. Kylar the Annoying's family is a part of the system but</para><para>is actively seeking to change the system.</para><para>Kylar's family supports the current political structure but favors a change of rulers. Kylar the</para><para>Annoying's family is unhappy with current political structure but satisfied the current rulers are</para><para>at least doing no real harm to non-violators of the church dogma. Kylar unfortunately had a knack</para>cpara>for songs and an increase in song magery at early adolescnece.</para><para>Some members of Kylar's family are secretly supporting a movement to overthrow the religious</para><para>system of rulers. Many of Kylar the Annoving's family including Kylar are in open revolt against</para><para>the current system and existing rulers. Kylar the Annoying's family has a historical conflict with</para><para>followers of the church because many members learn song magery and wish to practice their art.</para><para>Individuals are treated without regard to Kylars family name. Kylar the Annoying is the child of</para><para>a simple bard. Kylar's ancestor held a high position in the current political system entertaining</para><para>religious figures everywhere.</para><para>Relationships</para><para>Both of Kylar's parents have a long term illness. Kylar the Annoying has 3 older siblings and 3</para><para>younger siblings. Kylar's has three grandparents that are living. Kylar the Annoying knows</para><para>dozens of relatives of various generations. Kylar's significant friend is dead or missing</para><para>presumed eliminated by the church. Kylar the Annoying has angered his instructor by disregarding</para><para>advice on keeping a silent tongue towards the Order of light, but always relies on his bardic</para><para>abilities and charm to get out of trouble. An Order of light high priest of some importance has</para><para>a philosophical beef with Kylar the Annoving.</para><para>Last news from Kylar:</para><para>Kylar feels the void spewing him forth, his mind hurts as his body twists together to form a half-elf. Kylar vaguely recalls seeing a crossbow being stolen from him and used against him by some silent assassin raised from the dead. Kylar feels taller now, with no intention of singing for a while, his neck still sore with the feeling of a crossbow bolt lodged in his throat. </para><para>Memories flood towards Kylar as he recalls this puzzling world he is now a simply a single puzzle piece of.....Hassan. Perhaps a Champion of CHAOS needs his story chronicled. He casually adjusts his mind to calculate that over 200 years have past since he has stepped foot on this world.
